

The Australian Career Book Award – hosted by the Royal Society of Arts Oceania

Award Presentation 2024

The award presentation will be held via Zoom on Saturday October 19, 10 am (AEDT)

Program

The presentation will be facilitated by Philipa Duthie, Director RSA Oceania

Welcome – Philipa Duthie

Introduction – Dr Mark Strachan FRSA, Chair RSA Oceania

Mark will discuss the RSA mission and how the Award supports it in the career space.

Convenor Keynote – Lawrence Arnold FRSA, Award Convenor

The topic will be ‘Any spare change from any career change? What about the organisation?’

The Convenor will cover the issues and outcomes from a successful job crafting change for the individual, and the organisational issues involved. The awarded book 2024 will be announced in that context.

Writers in the Room – The award medalist 2024 will be invited to offer a short response and Philipa will facilitate a discussion between participants, career writers, and RSA Fellows on career issues covered in the 2024 Awarded Book and our Finalist Books.

Close – Philipa Duthie

Link to presentation

Registration is not required. Click on <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/2438396367> a few minutes before 10.00am on October 19 (AEDT). Australian Eastern Daylight Time will be operational in several Australian states.

For further information on the presentation or other TACBA processes hit the Award Tabs at www.careermelbourne.com or see our TACBA pages at <https://www.thersa.org/oceania/get-involved/australian-career-book-award>

Please feel free to contact the Award Convenor at thersa@careermelbourne.com for any Award information and RSA Oceania Director, Philipa Duthie, at philipa.duthie@thersa.org for information on the Royal Society of Arts.